

About Delacy Davis

Brother Sergeant De Lacy Davis graduated from Drew University in Madison, New Jersey with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English. He joined the East Orange Police Department in 1986. He is an instructor at the Essex County Police Academy and a New Jersey State-Certified firearms instructor. He has served as the Vice President of the Police Benevolent Association, Local #16, and the executive director of the East Orange Police Athletic League.

His commitment and love for his rich African heritage has brought him center-stage to deliver a message of empowerment to people of color. When he is not working at the East Orange Police Department or engrossed in community activities, Davis is on the lecture circuit as a keynote speaker at universities, rallies, professional workshops and community organizations. He is often asked to participate as a panelist on talk shows.

He has appeared on MTV, Nightline, Ricki Lake, N.J. Network's "Another View," News Talk, C-Span, Oprah, Maury Povitch, Like It Is with Gil Noble, NBC's "Positively Black," Black Entertainment Television's Teen Summit, Tonight With Tavis Smiley, Teen Court TV, Court TV, Fox Files, Hard Ball, Due Process, Good Day NY, The Black Experience and CBS Morning Show. He writes a news column "Breaking the Blue Code of Silence." Davis is a popular guest on talk radio nationwide. He's appeared in the Source Magazine, Vibe Magazine and Time Magazine.
