

Grieve For Me For Now I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call;
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way;
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared a laugh, a kiss;
Ah yes, these things, I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seems all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*

Obituary

Anna Harris was born on June 8, 1924 in Washington, NC to Walter Thomas Ward, Sr. and Nancy Holland Ward. Anna grew up in NYC where she attended New York public schools.

In 1948, she married Jack C. Harris and from that union she had 2 sons, Steven and Jack. She was very active at P.S. 155 in Ozone Park, NY where she worked as a teacher's assistant, and then a teacher. She also served as president of the PTA.

She went on to earn her bachelor's degree in Elementary Education from York College in New York. In 1978, upon retiring, Jack and Anna moved to Citrus Springs, FL. Anna became a craft enthusiast and received her certification from the Craft Yarn Council of America to teach knitting and crocheting. Teaching others the art of creativity and crafts gave Anna much pleasure. She taught these classes every week at the Dunnellon Library until she departed this earth.

She leaves to mourn: Two sons, Steven from Baltimore, MD and Jack, from New York; One brother, Walter Ward, from Brooklyn, NY; One sister, Elizabeth, from Roosevelt Island, NY; Two daughters-in-law, Linda from Baltimore, MD and Dora from New York; Four grandchildren, Angela, Damon, Steven and Julian; and one great-grandchild, Tyla Ann.
